Investing in Albania. An overview of the current tax system.

The current developments within Central and Eastern European countries are accompanied by ongoing changes in tax systems. For investors, this means numerous new developments to take into account.

TPA's CEE Country Series covers 12 Central and South Eastern European countries, and gives an overview of the business environment and the most important new developments, including:

- Different types of business organisations, and their most important features
- Key details of corporate and personal income tax and VAT in each country
- Current tax allowances, reliefs and concessions
- Core provisions of double taxation agreements

In the TPA-Country Series there are booklets on Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia and Slovenia. Visit our website www.tpa-group.com, for detailed information and updates, or subscribe to our electronic newsletter at service@tpa-group.com

The information in these folders is based on the present legal situation and current administrative practice, and is therefore subject to change. The information is general in nature, and of necessity abridged: the booklets are not a substitute for individual, specific advice.

Our CEE experts will be happy to answer your questions in more detail.

Other taxes

Real estate tax	The transfer of the right of ownership of immovable property, land and building is taxed with 15% on capital gains realized. For buildings, transfer taxes are paid from the transferor, the tax calculated based on the area and usage (residential, commercial, other) in the range of ALL 100 - 2000/m <sup>2</sup> depen- ding on the municipality where the property is located. Exemptions apply for the transfer of the ownership between members of the same family.
Investment income tax	<ol> <li>Investment income taxes are levied on all investment income generated in Albania:</li> <li>Dividends received by individuals' shareholders or by partners</li> <li>Income in the form of interest is considered as income from loans.</li> <li>Interest on bonds or other securities, and</li> <li>Interest from bank deposit and securities.</li> </ol>
	The tax rate amounts to 15% of the income
Local taxes on real estate	Real Estate Tax is levied yearly on buildings by municipality where the property is located, based on the property area/ square meter/usage.
	The tax base for buildings is the value of the buildings that is calculated according to the guidelines of the Council of the Ministers based on their age and location.
Real estate tax	Real Estate Tax is levied yearly on buildings, commercial land and agricultural land, based on the property area/square meter/usage.
	For commercial land (not public space), the tax is in a range of ALL 0.14 - 20/m <sup>2</sup> depending on the land location and usage.
	For agricultural land, the tax is in the range of ALL 700 - 5600/hectare per annum depending on the land category, as determined by the Ministry of Agriculture.
	For buildings the real estate taxes are applied as percentage of the tax base as follows: • 0.05% for residential buildings • 0.2% for buildings that are used for economic activity. For buildings that have not been finished on time is applied 30% of the regular tax rate. Income from leasing contracts: Under Article 784 and onwards of the Civil Code, "income from lea- sing contracts" is income from a contract through which a person is entitled to use and improve an immovable property. Income from leasing contracts is periodic compensation in cash or in kind that an individual generates from leasing real estate. If the tenant, according to the contract agreed among the parties, improves and adapts that property for the tenant's needs, the expenses incurred by the tenant are considered to be the income generated from leasing contracts for the owner of the property.
	The register of real estate reports all the data of the real estate identity of the owner, limits of property, date of registration, the relative deed of ownership acquisition, and relevant plans that show the location of property. In addition, any mortgage, assignment of easement, right to use and any other right connected to or deriving from the real estate that is transferred to any third party, is recorded in the register

Stock options	No specific rules govern the tax treatment of employer-provided stock options. Stock options are subject to personal income tax at the moment of exercise.

Tax regulations

Tax Procedural Law	This law regulates the procedures for the adminis- tration of taxes in the Republic of Albania, as well as the principles of organization and functioning of the tax administration in the Republic of Albania.
	The provisions shall apply to all types of taxes and tax liabilities, unless by special laws otherwise provided.
Penalties for late payment	The amount of delay interest is 120% of the inter- bank interest rate of the Bank of Albania, which is determined each quarter based on the average rate of the previous quarter.
	Delay interest applies in all circumstances and can not be removed from the tax administration or appeal, except when there are errors in calculation or when there is a change in taxable base.
Fiscal Evasion	Concealment of taxes, through the filing of false documents, false statements or unrealistic information, which leads to inaccurate calculation of the amount of tax, fee or contribution is tax evasion and sentenced with a fine of equal to 100% of the difference between the amounts accrued and what should be in fact.
Payment of tax liability, subject to appeal	The deadline for appealing the preliminary results of a tax audit is 15 calendar days.
	The deadline for appealing the final results of a tax audit is 30 calendar days after the final tax audit is received.
	The taxpayer may appeal the tax audit result at the Tax Appeals Directorate or at the Tax Appeal Commission based on the amount of the tax liabi- lities. In case the receipt date of a tax notification from the tax authorities cannot be determined, the notification will be considered as received by the taxpayer within 10 days from the mailing date.
	A taxpayer, who wants to appeal, has to, together with the complaint, pay the full amount of tax liability. Alternatively he can deposit a bank guarantee on the full amount of assessed tax and default interest.
	The appeal is considered only when the taxpayer has paid the tax which is subject to appeal or has provided a bank guarantee for the whole amount of fiscal obligation.

Tax regulations

	An administrative act issued by the tax adminis- tration which is not appealed administratively can not be appealed in court. The decision of the Tax Appeals Directorate or the Tax Appeal Commission can be appealed to court not later than 30 days from the notification date. If the Tax Appeals Directorate or the Tax Appeal Commission do not deliberate in 60 days, than the taxpayer may appeal directly in court.
Reimbursement of tax, delay interests and payment of fine	If the tax directory decision is in favor of the taxpayer and the tax administration accepts the decision, the tax obligation and the interest for the taxes paid in excess calculated from the date of payment of tax due until the date of refund are reimbursable to the taxpayer within 30 days from the decision date.
Penalties	Penalties imposed for administrative violations related to a tax liability can not exceed 100% of the tax due
Deregistration procedures	Within 30 days from the application for de-regi- stration at the National Business Centre after the approval of the tax authorities. The tax authorities should check taxpayers' situation by the means of a risk analysis and tax audit if necessary
Cash transactions	Cash transactions are limited to ALL 150,000.

Taxable transactions	The transfer of the right of ownership of immovable property, land and building is taxed with 15% on capital gains realized. This does not apply in the case of exchange of the ownership right of land with the right of ownership of the building built on the ground.
Capital Gains	Capital gains realized are the difference between the sale value and the acquiring value of land or building. In cases when the individual passes ownership for the second time the difference between the sales value and the purchase value specified in the previous contract is used for purposes of calculating the capital gain.
Tax rate	15%
Tax collection	Tax on income from the transfer of the right of ownership is paid by the individual that sells the real estate. Local offices of real estate registration calculate and collect the relevant tax liability. The payment of taxes is a requirement for the registration of the ownership transferring act.

The right to taxation in the event of sale of interests in property companies is subject to differing provisions. In accordance with the OECD Model Agreement, for those countries for which there is a "yes" in the real estate clause column the right to taxation lies generally not with the country of residence of the vendor but with the country in which the property is situated (as of 6 January 2020).
